

Visit Scotland - Scotlands War - history and scottish life

Contributed by Administrator
Tuesday, 27 February 2007
Last Updated Saturday, 21 April 2007

Visit Scotland

Visiting Scotland is one of the most exciting experiences for any traveler. A visit to Scotland is always a great pleasure.

Scotland is a beautiful country to visit. The area comes with many various types of interests. If you love history, you can visit Scotlands numerous castles, particularly Stirling castle, which is the biggest one. You can also visit historical towns, as Edimburgh or Aberdeen. These towns are beautiful, with their old streets and their churches. If you prefer nature for your holidays, then go and visit the Higlands and the Orkney islands. These are beautiful wild places where you can walk alone for miles. You can walk on the shores and admire the light which is known to be very unique to this place. If you want to look for mystery, you can visit Scotland's loch, and particularly the Loch Ness on rhe north shore. May be you'll find the monster of the Loch, also known as Nessy. You can also visit the old haunted castles than can be found nearly everywhere on the countryside. Or search for Macbeth on his grave in the isle of Iona. If you want to try Scottish folklore, you can assist a bagipe concert and danse wearing a traditionnal kilt. If you prefer adding some gastronomy to your trip, why not tour the scottish whisky road ? It is a very good way to visit the heart of scotland.

Well, in the end, you see, there a so many good reasons to visit scotland that you only have to find the one that better suits you before getting on the plane !

For more information, see Map of Scotland .